

The [Illuminati] Now Controls the Whole World – Fact

What we need to know and what we need to do

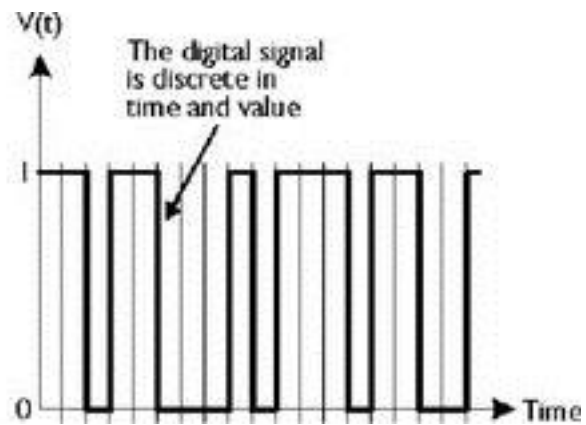

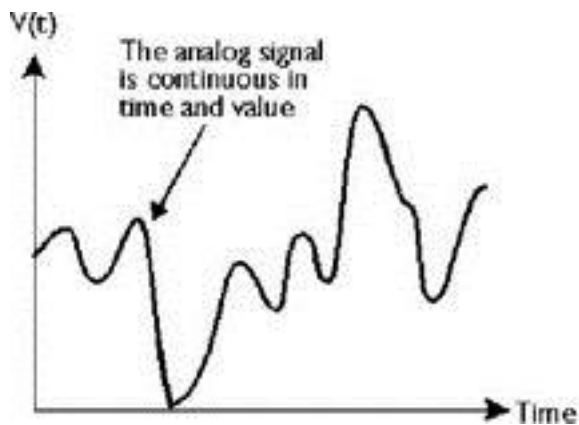

Recently the [Illuminati] brought out a Book and a Web Site announcing to the World that they now have everything in place and nobody can stop them “...anyone who reads this book as a means to subvert our authority will find their scheme to be futile. The components are so deeply established in your society, there is nothing anyone could do to challenge them...not even the world’s most powerful leaders can alter Planetary Law...”

A very bold statement to make indeed, but let me make one thing clear, after writing about this for over fifteen years and trying to warn people, my opinion is that they are absolutely right and nobody, no nation howsoever large can alter what they have put into place. Of this I am very sure and in total agreement. Let us examine a few other statements in their Book: “...[Illuminati] is an elite collective of political leaders, business owners and other influential members of the planet...” Again this is very true and we will discover how and why later on. “...our councils’ authority supersedes that of individual governments...” Again all true.

“The [Illuminati] has helped shape every major movement on this planet since the first government was established...” Now read that again and then allow this information to sink in: the first Government on this planet was established in Ancient Egypt and Mesopotamia in around 3650 BCE, that is almost SIX THOUSAND YEARS AGO! Six thousand (6,000) years ago when this control and manipulation of humanity began!

So how have they helped shape ‘...every major movement...’ over such a long period of time? Initially through architecture, artwork, paintings, sculptures, channelling (yes this phenomena is nothing new), then through ALL ‘their’ belief systems which we would recognise as ‘religious beliefs’, books, and more recently to capture those people moving away from religion and thus ‘their control’, through all the myriad of New Age beliefs that ‘they’ have also created, more channelled information, the Media, Hollywood, the Music Industry, Advertising, Computer and Console Games and a whole lot more. Let this information also sink in for a few minutes before we come back to it.

Further, we have the manipulation of the human mind through our subconscious: “...our messages are broadcast on spectrums only detectable by your subconscious mind, allowing us to gently influence your decisions and choices, and even those of people in entire cities and countries at once.” ‘They’ admit to deliberately introducing the Digital Age of Communication, E-Mail, Text Messaging, Social Media and all things wireless in order that 1: they can track everybody’s communications, store them and use them against people if it became necessary; “Every computer, phone, or communication tool is a device used to gather information about you...” and 2: The development of the ‘Digital Signal’ (square wave modulation compared with Nature’s natural Sine wave) is to carry these subliminal messages mentioned above. Not to mention the devastating affects this ‘modulation’ has upon all living things. The normal Sine wave we find in Nature passes straight through the body, causing us no harm whatsoever. However, these Square Wave Modulated frequencies stay in the body where they unleash their payload, so to speak, causing havoc with our internal communications, even damaging DNA. See image below:

Why is the subconscious mind targeted? "...the subconscious mind is the human species most powerful muscle..." So control the subconscious mind and 'they' then not only control the health of an individual and their soul/consciousness, but also control the Mind, which the [Illuminati] consider to be "...the most powerful element of the human species..." (More of other ways they do this later.) This is interesting because the 'mind', as well as just being a processing unit, is also the house of the ego, a pea-sized organ in the left hemisphere of the brain, and when we look at what the [Illuminati] is offering people for becoming a 'member' of its' organisation, it is a tantalising suggestion of increased Power and Wealth, and protection of all their secrets. This obviously, in my opinion, appeals immediately to the ego and greed of humans who likewise desire the same power, control and wealth. However, the outcome may not be what it seems or is 'intentioned'.

This is where it gets interesting, as far as human manipulation is concerned. One thing the [Illuminati] do not tolerate, and they make this very clear in the book, is disloyalty! "...Once a ranking member, you can never renounce your loyalty...The sanctity of our authority must be upheld...disloyalty is not tolerated." So, is this why we see celebrities who through the desire for more power and wealth are now promoting and endorsing the likes of Monsanto's GMO project, Vaccines, Fracking, Geoengineering and so much more? Simply because once that have bought into this organisation, they have no other choice "...Members must fulfil their oaths to the [Illuminati] under every circumstance...", for if they don't, their reputation and careers would be destroyed immediately, "...As their careers crumble, they know there is nothing they can do – they knew our judgement was approaching..."? Yes, is the simple answer to this, total obedience is required, whether one agrees with what they are endorsing or not.

Or, is part or the whole of the above all to do with the Old World Order (OWO), or a mixture of the two? The [Illuminati] go on record as saying they are benevolent, so maybe most if not all of the above is to do with the OWO who see the [Illuminati] as the enemy, and vice versa. We'll pursue this a little later on.

Of course there are many other examples that could be cited, but most people aware of this group of secret elitists are also aware of what these are. So let us examine a few points already covered in more detail and see if we can discover anything we really ought to be taking notice of:

'They' have been responsible for 'shaping' every major movement for nigh on the last 6000 years. Now 'shaping' means moulding, controlling and determining the outcome, the end result 'to plan or decide on what the character of something should be...to bring something or somebody to a desired state...' Therefore we can safely conclude that EVERY belief system we humans have ever been subjected to over the last 5000+ years has been deliberately created for us and further, that not one of these beliefs holds any truth whatsoever. However, this is a mixture of beliefs created by both the OWO and the [Illuminati], both 'fighting' in a sense to control the people. So good people, whichever way we want to look at it, we have been duped, lied to, controlled and manipulated for thousands of years; of this there can be no doubt. Everything our ancestors believed in and what many people believe in today is nothing but a lie, a tool to control us, mislead us and DIVIDE US. Until of course we find out what the real 'belief' of [Illuminism] actually is. All I know for sure is that it is based upon Mathematics and Gnosticism, a more science and factual based 'belief' than the 'faith-based' belief of Religion and much of the New Age.

Why and what have been the reasons for all these beliefs? One is the obvious reason, given the above, to completely control and manipulate us, while two is to divide us, keep us at war with each other and importantly, to focus our gaze on an 'enemy' anywhere but where it truly lies, within our own 'belief' and within those that created it (which certainly applies to Religious-based beliefs). But does this apply to the [Illuminati]? It certainly does in regard to keeping their organisation and growth 'secret' from their sworn enemy the OWO. In fact in the Book on page 187 it states "The best defence is an enemy who does not know you exist." And this is exactly how it has been for nearly 6000 years - regardless of which entity we are talking about, though in the main this would have to be the OWO, humans have been duped and so programmed through their belief systems that they simply have not been aware of the existence of the real enemy, and more importantly, the question of what 'Reality' controls this 'enemy'? There is a third reason why all these beliefs have been created which I will come to shortly and it is an important reason, as is 'what' is this 'reality' that controls the [illuminati] and the OWO and where does it fit in with all of this?

Another statement worth noting in the book is "...the nature of your species leaves true freedom impossible..." and that we must obey our Leaders because all this control and restriction of freedom is for our own good and own safety. More so they declare that every piece of mobile technology has a 'backdoor' built into it so 'they' can record everything we do share and say and compile a dossier on us for future use. The media which they also control tells us that governments are attempting to restrict our freedom even more and so we go on social media and other platforms defending our rights to freedom, when it is all futile as they have already been completely eroded. This keeps us 'occupied' and distracted once again, just as 'their' beliefs have done for thousands of years. Another noteworthy point is this, if you read the book, whenever 'they' refer to humans it is always as 'Your Species', not 'Our Species' which would indicate that 'they' see humans somewhat differently. Which they do, but they are not aliens or anything like that and we'll come to this later. However, another possibility is that could all this 'information-stored' be to merely protect 'them', something they can use against their 'enemy' rather than against us?

In the meantime let us examine another obvious question: how has this process, this planning and implementation of what is now total control of the World been carried out so successfully for over 5000 years? How can it be possible? It is simply not possible for humans who are constantly dying and being replaced with new humans to maintain the complete continuity of this Master Plan because of its' immense structure and complexity, never mind the continual changes required to keep it all up to date. This would suggest that 'something' else is overseeing it and orchestrating it all, and this is very true when we factor in the most obvious possibility, and one that I will prove shortly – Reincarnation! Yes, all of this 'control of the world' we are now seeing in place has been implemented by Reincarnated Souls over thousands of years and orchestrated by the Leaders and Councils in this 'reality' which they 'come' from. These Reincarnated Souls (RS) 'come back' with exactly the same 'mind set', Agenda, Plan and details of 'control' that has for thousands of years been planned orchestrated and gradually altered and shaped to suite the modern era (as have our beliefs) in the 'Reality' where these RS come from. This is absolutely true so please stay with me and I will prove it. Note: This ‘reincarnation’ applies to both entities, the OWO and the {Illuminati] the NOW.

There are numerous books available written by Doctors such as Newton and Modi along with many others, all compiling and sharing their experiences of debates with Reincarnated Souls under what is known as Regressive Hypnotherapy and Past Life Regression. In these intriguing accounts we find some very interesting and corroborative accounts of ‘where’ these Reincarnated Souls (RS) come from and what this ‘reality’ they come from is. I am only going to focus on what ‘corroboration’ is relevant to this article. RS describe the ‘reality’ where they come from as God’s Heaven, and sometimes the Core of God as well as the Wheel of Evolution and Web of Consciousness. However, the descriptions most often given when RS are asked to describe ‘what this reality looks like’ are the Pyramid of God, and for RS who have had a more ‘eastern’ experience of ‘incarnations’ it is described as the Globe of God. When drawn this is what the RS had to share:

So, on the one hand we have the Pyramid shape (left), which we would expect from the those who describe this ‘reality’ as the Pyramid of God, and on the other hand we have the Circle depicting the Globe of God to the right.

Now if we take a look at the ‘symbol’ for the [Illuminati] (or ‘Mark’ as they prefer to call it) to the left we can see something very interesting. We can see BOTH aspects of this ‘reality’ as described by RS being displayed quite clearly; the Pyramid and the Circle (Globe) with the All Seeing Eye (of this reality) in the centre.

This is no coincidence! Do you imagine an ‘unknown’ entity that has taken over 5000 years to obtain total control of the world would make such an error? NO, it wouldn’t, this is deliberate and this ‘mark’ symbolises this ‘Reality’ and its’ Heaven to all its’ programmed RS who occupy human vessels (yes that is how ‘they’ refer to us) so they can ‘see’ who and what is in charge and be assured that they are protected and which Path they should follow and who to be guided by. However, if the Pyramid and the Circle mean anything else then I would love to know what this is.

This ‘reality’ is something I have always referred to as the external ego-consciousness, because that is what it is, the EGO. Though many others would better recognise it as the Astral Reality, which is merely a collective reflection in the Earth’s consciousness of all our past and current mistakes made through ego, through greed and the desire for power and control over others. In short, a disease and imbalance in consciousness, symbolically a tumour, a cancer that is slowly destroying all life on Earth.

So how do these RS control the ‘human vessels’ they ‘occupy’?

I would imagine that a few people are aware of the fact that many recipients of Donor Organs take on the likes, dislikes, memories and often the personality and character of the dead donor. There have been plenty of books covering this ‘issue’ with some recipients even being able to recognise the parents of the dead donor. Why? How? This is all to do with the sharing of ‘consciousness’, or more correctly the ‘Soul’ of the dead donor. Before the ‘donor’ is allowed to die the organs are ‘harvested’ and kept alive. Thus the ‘soul/consciousness’ of the donor remains alive and intact in the living organs. The Soul/Consciousness is literally the ‘who’ and ‘what’ we are, or more correctly, what we have become up to that point in time.

So when a donor organ is transplanted into the recipient, so too is the donor’s soul/consciousness; their memory, personality, character and so forth. This is why the ‘recipient’ often takes on the memories, personality, character, likes and dislikes of the dead donor because all this ‘memory’ this ‘soul/consciousness’ has been transplanted into them. So the recipient is ‘influenced’ both subconsciously and consciously by the soul/consciousness of the dead donor. This is just how consciousness works, and how we interact with nature and everything around us 24/7 through interacting with and thus sharing ‘consciousness’.

So, being ‘influenced’ and sometimes ‘controlled’ by a different kind of consciousness external to our own is not only possible, it happens. This is no different when we look at how the Astral works to control and influence (most) humans. The astral uses ‘consciousness’ in the form of the Souls of dead humans, who are programmed with ‘information’ in the Astral Heavens before being ‘sent’ down to ‘occupy’ what they refer to humans as, a ‘human vessel’. This is known as Reincarnation and all the woes in the world today are created by these Reincarnated Souls (RS or Born-Agains as I call them) occupying human vessels through the astral-induced lie that is reincarnation. Remember, the [Illuminati] targets our subconscious (our soul/consciousness) and when it controls this it controls the Mind and therefore the actions of that human ‘vessel’.

Reincarnated Souls are programmed in the Astral Heavens in Soul Groups to carry out certain predetermined acts on Earth before being ‘reincarnated’, or more correctly as RS call it, achieving a Full Meld or Full Occupancy, and therefore control, of the Human Vessel. It is here, in the Astral Heavens, where ‘souls’ are taught – well, mind-controlled and brainwashed would be more accurate – in Soul Groups. Soul Groups have to obey the Law of Silence and this ‘law’ ensures that no soul from any Soul Group can talk or mix with any soul from any other Soul Group. This is important to understand, because if these souls had been allowed to mix, these souls would know instantly that something was not right and that something really bad was going on. [As to ‘how’ this Astral Reality was formed and ‘how’ dead human souls end up there for ‘programming’ is beyond this short article, but will be explained at a later date.] Though it is to do with the way ‘their’ deliberately created beliefs alter our soul/consciousness into the same likeness of the consciousness of the astral, and as consciousness attracts like for like, when that human dies its’ Soul/Consciousness is likewise attracted to, and by, the Astral consciousness. This is no different really to how a tumour cell imparts (shares) its’ consciousness with healthy cells around it and thus the tumour grows.

So, just like the recipient of a Donor organ can take on the likes, dislikes, memory and so forth of the dead donor, when a RS takes control of the human body it begins to influence that human in exactly the same way. Then the Soul (consciousness) of the occupied human begins to take on the beliefs and programming of the RS and the human commences on the road to fulfilling that predetermined astral-programming under the control of the occupying RS.

So allow me to offer an example of how this works. So, we have Soul Groups who will ‘occupy/possess’ those humans in positions of political power and influence, World Leaders, Politicians, Presidents, Prime Ministers and so on. These controlled humans will then ‘create’ the wars and conflicts, and long story short, leave behind the better armoury, artillery and weapons in the hands of the ‘rebels’ and ‘terrorists’, even sending Arms to their 'chosen' rebel groups - who just so happen to be part of another Soul Group. Then armed with this more advanced weaponry the terrorists are able to commit more attacks with more devastating outcomes, as we are witnessing today. This then allows the other humans, those politicians controlled by the reincarnated souls from the other Soul Groups to eradicate our freedom even further, taking us ever closer to a Police State and Dictatorship. All orchestrated by the astral reality and the programmed souls it uses to 'occupy' human vessels. For the record, reincarnated souls in this astral heaven have been programmed to view humans as, and I quote 'primitive' and 'lumps of empty soulless flesh' who without their 'occupancy' would die early. [It is not within the scope of this Post to explain how souls end up in the astral or how they manage to 'occupy' – more correctly possess – a human vessel].

So as far as those RS occupying human vessels are concerned, they do not care one jot about what happens to human life. That of the human they possess and control, nor any other human that suffers or dies in the process of carrying out their programmed duties. Which is why we have Suicide Bombers and terrorists prepared to die for Martyrdom, it matters not one hoot to these RS what happens to the human vessel they 'occupy', because they know upon death of that human that 'they' (the RS) will just return to the Astral Heavens for more teaching (programming) before being readied for 'another life' in another human vessel. Some people would associate this kind of behaviour in a RS-controlled human as being psychopathic.

In addition to the example of Soul Groups offered above, we also have Soul Groups who are responsible for the GMOs, the poisoning of nature, changing what is natural into something that is unnatural, something that now has a polluted consciousness. Similarly Soul Groups are responsible for creating the toxic chemicals used on the Land and Crops, polluting their consciousness too, while others create Fracking which is causing earthquakes and polluting the Land and Water supplies. Other Soul Groups create the toxic Chemtrails and the Geoengineering poisoning the Air as well as the land and life it falls upon; pollution of consciousness again. Other Soul Groups create the dangerous EMFs and HAARP which damages all living things polluting their consciousness too, while other 'Groups' create the Nuclear Power Stations which are killing off our Ocean Life and much more. Other Soul Groups are responsible for creating all the toxic medications and vaccines which pollute those who receive them. Other 'Groups' are programmed to change the education system, bringing in Common Core, and also in the US Islamic teachings and Sharia Law and much more is being introduced which further pollutes the soul/consciousness of our children. This is also why we are seeing terrorists freed in the US to go out and commit more atrocities, and everything else we can recall.

I mentioned earlier that there was a third reason that all these beliefs were, and have been, created and this is to feed this Astral Reality 'energy'! We know now that ALL our beliefs have been deliberately created to control us and divide us, but in addition, and this is important, the astral is fed energy from humans through their belief systems and the corresponding human belief. As belief, thought, prayer and so on is 'energy', then through our belief in the lie, our prayers to 'God' or whatever other supernatural being the astral has created to fool us, along with invocations, ceremonies, rituals and everything else associated with belief systems, means we are contributing our human energy to the astral. WE are feeding it energy and helping it to survive. This is WHY all our belief systems have been created, to FEED this astral 'God', the Pyramid and Globe of God and all the polluted 'souls' that exist in this WEB of Consciousness/Core of God/Wheel of Evolution. So, symbolically one could say that a good proportion of humans caught up in the lie of 'belief' – today at least – are no more than batteries for the Astral. Brilliantly simple yet effective and it has worked like a dream for thousands of years. When I say ALL our beliefs then I mean ALL, not just religion, but the New Age, Freemasonry, the Qabala, the Occult, Satanism, Wicca and so on.

To conclude, the Astral controls their human puppets [illuminati] as well as many other humans occupied by these RS through the 'consciousness' of the occupying RS. However the Astral have a major problem, there are just too many humans and not enough available RS to control the whole of humanity in this way. This is why there is an Agenda for Global Depopulation, and agenda to wipe out at least 6 billion people, leaving enough human vessels to equal the number of RS available to occupy them and control them. This is why we are seeing so much toxicity being created in the world through poisoning the Air, Land and Sea, GMOs, forced vaccinations and everything else that makes us ill, speeds up death and makes us infertile.

Once the Astral has fulfilled its' Plan of global depopulation then and only then will they stop poisoning the Earth and everything living on it. They already have the 'Seed Banks' buried deep in the frozen north of Norway, buried so deep and so well protected it will withstand a direct nuclear attack. When ALL humans are 'occupied' and controlled by their RS then they will bring out all these natural 'seeds' and attempt to regrow Nature back to how it should be. Unless the Astral destroys all life on Earth, and maybe even the Earth itself in the meantime of course.

Now, it would appear that there are two 'groups' within the Astral that have been fighting for control of humanity and the Earth for around 6000 years. Apparently, both see each other as a sworn enemy, but could this be just another form of divide and conquer? Until the [Illuminati] come clean with their 'plans' and their philosophy we will never know for sure, but for me, because both use 'reincarnation' which is not part of the natural order of creation, then there has to be an element of doubt about the benevolence of the [Illuminati], unless they truly are benevolent and have only used 'reincarnation' as a way of protecting the human species. However, it matters not and we do not have to wait before we can do anything, because we can all do something now.

Conclusion: What can we do, if anything?

Many people may argue, and rightly so, that if the [Illuminati] controls the whole world and there is nothing anybody can do to stop them, what is the purpose of this article? This is a good question, and whilst on a physical level there may be nothing anyone can do to displace what is already in place, we can make a difference on another level; a Spiritual Level. Allow me to explain how:

This is all about 'consciousness' and consciousness works in the same simple way no matter how large or small an entity or process may be. So let us use the analogy of a Tumour/Cancer. Now with the right treatment the Tumour and its' diseased consciousness can be brought back into balance and health. We can achieve this in two ways, 1. Firstly and importantly we need to STOP feeding the Tumour and 2. Treat the Tumour with balanced consciousness from nutrition and certain herbs and supplements known to strengthen the immune system and help bring the tumour back into a balanced state of health. There is no need to go into all the details of what or how as it is as simple as this.

So, with the Astral Reality being a disease in consciousness, just like a tumour, then we need to adopt the exact same approach when dealing with this astral consciousness.

Firstly we must STOP FEEDING it, and as we know from the aforementioned, we do this by giving them energy through our beliefs. So if people are serious about stopping the culling of 6 billion people, then they MUST STOP FEEDING this Astral Reality. You can only do this by STOPPING your BELIEF! People need to throw away their belief/s IMMEDIATELY and this will deprive the astral of much needed energy.

I appreciate that for many this may be a difficult task to do, but if you have read the above then you should realise now that whatever you believe in is a lie anyway, deliberately created to mislead and control you, whilst providing this astral reality with the energy it needs to survive.

So the first act we all need to do – and we need thousands of people to do this immediately as there is no time to waste – IS STOP FEEDING THIS DISEASE BY THROWING AWAY OUR BELIEF/S, no matter how hard this may be for you. It is our only chance and if you value human life, Nature and the Earth, then this is of paramount importance.

Secondly, just like the immune system needs help and needs to be aware of the disease in the body to deal with a tumour, then we too have make the Greater Immune System of All aware of this astral disease in consciousness and support it and make it stronger and better equipped to deal with this astral disease.

We can do this by using an Affirmation, and while this may appear useless to many people, believe me when I say this, IT WORKS! It is all about consciousness and communicating with the right consciousness around us to help. This is the Affirmation and this, like stopping all of our beliefs, needs to be carried out immediately and by as many people as possible.

Affirmation:

I ask the Living Light of Creation that animates me and all living things in the Universe animated by this Living Light of Creation to constantly send Unconditional Love and the Living Light of Creation to the very centre, and the periphery, of the imbalance in consciousness that exists in the consciousness of the Earth and beyond.

I further ask that all living things in the Solar System, our Galaxy and the Universe animated by this Living Light of Creation constantly sends Unconditional Love and this Living Light of Creation consciously and subconsciously to the very centre and periphery of the imbalance in consciousness that exists in the consciousness of the Earth and beyond.

I ask that this Unconditional Love and Living Light of Creation from all living things in the Universe continues to grow in size and magnitude, expanding throughout the whole of this imbalance in consciousness, inwardly and outwardly until this imbalance in consciousness is brought back into a complete balanced state of being and health.

I ask that this Unconditional Love and Living Light of Creation from all living things in the Universe maintain this perfect balance in consciousness when this balance has been achieved.

I thank you.

It is now up to you good people to realise what has been happening for thousands of years, and how humanity has been duped and used to further this Astral Reality's goal of total World Domination, thus fulfilling the Astral Mantra: "On Earth as it is in Heaven". If the [Illuminati] really are benevolent, then this action will only help them, and the real 'enemy' of humanity will be brought back into a balanced state of being, health!

Please share this information widely and encourage as many people as possible to read it and take action before it is too late. Yes, there will be many people who will dismiss this information I am sure, most of those will be RS, while other people will just not be open enough to appreciate it. So expect criticism but do so in the knowledge that at least YOU are doing something positive about this situation and trying your best to save 6 billion people on this planet, and maybe even Planet Earth Herself.

I share this information because of love for Humanity, Nature and the Earth and everything living upon it. I hope thousands of other people will feel the same and take action because we are running out of time.

Note: of course this will not change or remove the personnel involved on a physical level, or any this control already in place, but what it may do is change the consciousness that feeds them and thus make their decisions and actions far more benevolent in the future...

Note 2: if I should disappear or die in mysterious circumstances, or be fitted up with some 'crime' I have not committed, then you know why...
